v.

 SECTION: "F" (3)

PERRY L. TAYLOR
a/k/a JAMES J. HOLLAND

FACTUAL BASIS

Should this matter proceed to trial, the United States of America will prove beyond a reasonable doubt, through credible testimony and reliable evidence, the following facts:

On August 10, 2007, NOPD First District task force officers Kenneth Gill and Michael Hughes were patrolling the area near Iberville and North Johnson Street. Officers observed a white male (later identified as PERRY L. TAYLOR) staggering as he walked and appeared to be intoxicated. Because TAYLOR appeared to be extremely intoxicated, the officers decided to conduct a pedestrian stop. Immediately upon approaching TAYLOR, the officers observed the strong odor of alcohol from TAYLOR, and observed TAYLOR'S slurred speech which was unintelligible. At this point, TAYLOR was placed under arrest. While searching TAYLOR, the officers discovered a Colt .357 Trooper MKV, .357 caliber magnum revolver, bearing serial number 47413V in his waistband.

Court documents would prove that TAYLOR was convicted on April 6, 1994, in the Criminal District Court for the Parish of Orleans, Case Number 366-877 "A" for Armed Robbery, in violation of LA-R.S. 14:64. TAYLOR was sentenced to five years. Probation records would also evidence that TAYLOR was on Parole until October 25, 1998.

A Special Agent with the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives would testify that the Colt .357 Trooper MKV,.357 caliber magnum revolver, bearing serial number 47413V was not manufactured in the state of Louisiana, therefore, it has affected interstate commerce.
